

Lloyd Jacob Harder

HARDER _ Lloyd Jacob - good father and husband passed away peacefully in his sleep on September 14, 2006 at Abbotsford B.C. Lloyd is survived by his wife Noel and his sons Greg (Barbara), Christopher (Philippa), Paul (Jutta), Brian (Vivian), 9 grandchildren and his dog Teddy. Lloyd was born on December 3, 1920 in Herbert Saskatchewan. As a young prairie boy at the start of WWII, he fulfilled his dream of becoming an RCAF bomber pilot. He flew Mitchells and Bostons on 50 missions over Europe. At the end of the war he flew Field Marshall Montgomery through war ravaged Europe. He maintained a connection with this part of his life through the 2nd TAF Medium Bomber Association until his death. Lloyd was known for his common sense and sage advice given on many topics from child rearing to complex estate planning. He enjoyed his days and many colleagues in the insurance business. His later life was filled with family and travel. Dad, thanks for everything. We will miss you very much. A memorial service will take place at Henderson's Funeral Chapel, 34537 Marshall Road, Abbotsford on Saturday, September 30 at 1:00 pm. A reception will follow at his home.

Published in the Vancouver Sun on 9/20/2006.